“ I loved working with Matt at Strathmore Press. Always had old school music playing, and he'd often show off his dance moves. He made me laugh a lot, and probably made me roll my eyes a time or two. He was a great guy, and I am saddened that he's no longer here. These pics are from 2010, when we had themed dress-up days at work.

“ One memory is Matt singing to loud music as he worked. all kinds of music. He was full of life. He filled the space and it is a big space-5000 square feet! Also he was always immaculately groomed and his clothes were always clean especially the white t shirts. It was a miracle to stay clean in this dirty job. “ So sorry to hear of Matthew's passing. I am a distant relative and knew him and his brothers when they were small. Have been away from Louisville for many years so lost touch. My condolences to his family and friends at this time.
