Jeff,

I just wanted to pass along my condolences for your loss. I don't know if you remember me but I graduated from Butler in 1980 and we were in the same 7th grade class - Mr. Hood. I have remained good friends with Mark Mitchell and he also sends his thoughts and prayers.

As a father of four I cannot begin to imagine the terrible pain and grief you and your family must be feeling, but please take some solace in knowing that there are a lot of people thinking about you and grieving for you and Max. Everything I have read about your son tells me that he was a special young man and you and your family clearly did a wonderful job raising him.

*Warm regards,
Kevin*
