

Maxwell Ray "Max" Stringfield

October 14, 2008

STRINGFIELD, MAXWELL RAY "MAX," 73, of Louisville, who was a loving husband and father, passed away suddenly at home Tuesday, October 14, 2008. He was a retired employee of American Synthetic Rubber Corp. where he worked 45 years, past president of United Rubber Workers Union Local 423, a 51 year member of Shively Masonic Lodge 951, a Shriner and a member of Mosaic United Methodist Church. He was preceded in death by his father, Raymond E. Stringfield. Survivors include his wife of 54 years, Joyce Carter Stringfield; daughters, Cynthia and Deborah Stringfield; his mother, Ina Mae Stringfield, of Richardsville, KY; two sisters, Alice Perkins (John), of Bowling Green, KY and Joy Stringfield Lewis, of Louisville; several nieces, nephews; and many friends. Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Thursday at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Highway, with burial in Fairview Cemetery, Bowling Green, KY. Visitation will be 2-8 p.m. Wednesday. Expressions of sympathy may be made to his Church Building Fund or Home of the Innocents. Condolences to owenfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

LW

“ Dearest Stringfield family:

We were quickly saddened to read of the passing of our dear friend Max. Lehman and I share many happy childhood memories of Max as he and Lehman grew up together in Richardsville, and he and I were in the same grade in school.

We extend heartfelt sympathy and understanding to your wonderful family, and pray for God's peace and love to sustain you in the days ahead.

We are thankful that we had the privilege of knowing and being friends with Max.

Sincerely,

*Lehman "Bink" and Gail White
Richardsville, Kentucky*

---

Lehman "Bink" & Gail White - June 28, 2018 at 04:44 PM