

Michael N. Brentlinger

May 29, 1961 - June 18, 2021

Michael N. Brentlinger, 61, of Louisville KY, passed away, June 18th, 2021.

Michael was born in Louisville KY, May 29th, 1961. When he graduated high school, he worked as an excavator, but he was a lover of cars and anything automotive. He would spend hours in his garage working on cars and drinking strong black coffee. Michael liked collecting and racing RC cars with his friends and fellow enthusiasts. He recently began metal detecting and traveled around civil war sites finding musket balls and unearthing treasures. Michael was also an avid gun enthusiast and collector. He was an animal lover and took care of many cats and a couple racoons he fostered named Cartmen, and Roseanne named after their TV personalities. Most importantly he cherished spending time with his friends and family, particularly his little grandson Benjamin.

He was preceded in death by his father Robert N. Brentlinger.

He is survived by his son, Cody Brentlinger (Brittany); stepchildren, Angela Hetsch (Mathew), and J.R. Remelius; grandchildren, Benjamin, Jacob, Kenneth, Jackson, and Mariah; Good friend Nathan Horseley; and Sue Brentlinger.
