

Michael Andrew Clifford

January 23, 1944 - May 11, 2025

Michael Andrew Clifford, 81, of Louisville, Kentucky, passed away on May 11, 2025. He was a proud Vietnam War veteran and a former Police Officer with the Louisville Division of Police Department. He was also a creative force in the film industry, working in special effects and appearing in movies like Sheba Baby, filmed in Louisville. Later, he followed his adventurous spirit to St. Croix, where he ran a restaurant and beach water-sports rental business. Michael was passionate, fearless, and hard-working. He loved movies, Willie Nelson, and playing guitar and singing with his band, “The Keystoners”. He gave his wife, Rita, a life full of sarcasm, laughter, and love. He was deeply proud of his sons—watching Simon play basketball and Kelly perform on guitar were among his greatest joys. Nothing meant more to him than his family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Nadine and Charles Clifford; brothers Patrick Clifford and Jerry Keeling; and his son, Kerry C. Clifford. He is survived by his wife, Rita Clifford; sons Kelly and Simon Clifford; daughter-in-law Lauren Clifford; grandson Noah Clifford; and his soon-to-arrive grandson, Aiden “Michael” Clifford. He is also survived by his sister Barbara Gregory and brothers Bill Keeling, John Keeling, Mark Clifford, Gene Clifford, and Danny Clifford.

Michael’s legacy is one of grit, music, and deep devotion to the people he loved.
