“ I looked up to Mike growing up. I was always a willing participant in his adventures and shenanigans. We threw the laws of physics out the window when we tried to "fix" his dad's alarm clock, tried to mount a lawnmower motor on a perfectly good bicycle or tried to double park on a fire hydrant. I moved away and eventually joined the navy but the times we had together were always close to my heart. I will miss Mike and wish I had connected more recently. My prayers go out to the family as we grieve together. God Bless!

“ Mike and I have shared so many memories and life lessons together. It is very difficult for me to think of all the goofy things we did as kids and not laugh out loud. Growing up in "The Terrace", he always had my back. Safe journey brother. Jeff Phelps
