“ *Michael Scott Morley was the only grandson I had and will be forever missed by me.
He was a very sweet and caring young man. He would always say I love you Grandma and I loved him so very much. I will always think about him and pray for Mike and Patty and all the rest of the family and friends who loved him so much.*

“ I was there when Michael was born. He was so handsome.....even if he was bald with no eyebrows. :) I was his Aunt Bickie and he was my Bubs. He would stay over with his cousin Gooley and ask for Basketti and throw a fit when it was time to go home. She was his Gooley and he was her Bubs....her best friend. My heart is broken and my family is devastated. Please remember my family and put them in your prayers. Bubs you ain't Bickie will see you again one day. This crazy lady loves you always.

“ Mike and I are sharing your emotions that come with the passing of your child. The ups and downs, the tears and sadness, the anger and questions....with no good answers as to why? We didn't chose to be part of the club of parents who have to say goodbye to their child but, we will always share this with you. We are here to support you now and in the coming days. Much love. “ My heart is broken you had a beautiful heart and soul, you always made me feel so happy and full of love. My sweet Pisces ♉ thank you for all the memories we had, I wish they never had to end. I won't forget the great conversations we had and how sometimes we would communicate with each other without saying anything at all. I will always miss you and my heart forever bleeds. I love you I love you I love you

“ My sweet baby brother, my Taco Fred, the person that could make me smile and drive me crazy all at the same time. Where would I even begin with memories. I remember the first time I met you (even though I was not happy you were a boy), I quickly fell head over heels for you. As you grew older I remember making little towns in our bedroom with books and driving our cars through the imaginary roads, and sometime you would even get your perfect smirk and knock them all down just to make me mad. We loved playing cowboys with our popper guns and cowboy boots. Then as I become a teenager and when my friends came over and you just had to be in the room with us even if we were doing girly things. I would get mad and tell mom to make your get out. She would say just let him stay in there, one day you will miss it. God, was she right. If I could go back in time I would keep you in that room 24-7. When I would go on church trips it made you so sad. I remember mom and dad would have to drag you off of the church bus. Then of course we cant forget about our fights or just stupid stuff we did. Remember when we decided that it would be a good idea to light fire crackers in the basement and the house was smokey and we all had to try and clear the house of smoke before mom and dad come home. Or the time we pretty much got into a fist fight because you drank all of the apple juice. Wth was wrong with us. Bubby, my most favorite memories are hands down these last four years seeing you with Haleigh. You are a wonderful uncle. She was the light of your world and I could tell by the way you looked at her and spent your time with her. She is your baby and you are her best friend. She doesn't quite understand all of this but I promise that she will always know you and how much you love her. You will forever be her guardian angel. Bubby I love you forever and always with everything I have. I promise to take care of mom and dad!

Love your big sissy!!

Lulu!
