“ In loving memory of a special friend, Michele Lee Reardon. One of the brightest shining lights in so many lives and in particular; her two young daughters, Rachel and Sarah Graff. Michele's legacy is one of extraordinary valor as she battled breast cancer with resolve, courage and with the inner strength of a warrior. Her kindness and generosity of spirit compelled many 2 and 4 legged friends to befriend her. Look up to the sky to find her as she will be the brightest star that beckons you with her twinkling.

“ So sad to hear this news. With the growing pandemic I have been trying to reach out to as many people from my past as I can thanks to the internet and social media. Not sure what triggered the memory of Michele but I wanted to just say Hi. I knew her for a few years during the Ryan's Steakhouse days. She was a wonderful person and from the video posted here it looks like she continued to touch many people over the past 30 years. She was way too young and I can only hope the lives she touched will remember her forever.

Respectfully,

Ted Mitchell

“ Rachel and Sarah ,
We loved your Mom so much ! I remember when she first started title of Manager at Party Mart, she was so friendly and caring to all customers and just her personality made it a pleasure to stop in and have a nice chat. So when my husband John became disabled and could not work anymore a position came up and she hired me as cashier part time. Then as time went on , position came up for full time asst. manager so she promoted me and I have so enjoyed working by her side . She truly saved us at a time of desperate need for income and I will be forever grateful for that job. I just can't imagine sweet Michele not by our side as our General Manager, Party Mart will never be the same without her and that bubbly laugh with such a sweet personality. I feel like part of her family. Miss you Dearly Michele always a special part of my life. Love, Susan & “ I've known Michelle since she was very young. My daughter and Michelle were childhood friends. Her mother lives across the street from me. My heart grieves for Sarah and Rachel. Losing your Mom at such young ages, when you need her most is so sad. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

And to Linda and Steven. There are times when you are at a loss for words to convey what your heart feels. That's me right now! All I can say is I am so deeply sorry. I pray you feel Gods peace and comfort for all the family. Just cherish and cling to all the precious memories. Linda Hornback
