“ So few words spoken of a man who lived 54 years on this earth. Over half a century and not one person could share a thought, a memory, and caring word for this man. My heart hurts for the family who isn't caring enough to speak up. Reminds me of some of my own family...nobody checks on each other...the "well-off" in my family doesn't help anyone who's struggling...I've always been the odd ball among everyone at family gatherings for holidays...like I didn't even belong there. It hurts. Mickey's family, Y'all should come together...love, listen, talk, spread family cheer, help each other, speak up for one another, be a FAMILY. Best wishes to you all!
