“ My heart is heavy, but how very blessed I have been to have had my beloved Grandmother my entire life. I will cherish all of our memories...from playing in the back yard on Creel Ave. when I was little, to our crafting days, our trips to Florida, you taught me how to can and our love of quilts. Most important, your love for the Lord and always doing what is right. Thank you for your Godly example, you will be forever in my heart. Love, Libby

“ It was a sad night when I waited with my Mother, to make her transition from her earthly home to her heavenly home. My dear Mother other passed on my watch. No more pain and suffering, the Lord was waiting for her to come gather with her family that left her behind many years ago. I know mother will continue watching over her earthly family as she rests in peace. Love your daughter Liz (Elizabeth Schneider).
