“ Almost Every time I drive to Dixie via Lower Hunters, I pass the little shopping area on Lower Hunters & think of Jerry. Also, when I drive through Heavenly Heights subdivision, I think of his house & family that live just a little "out of the way" from the busy streets of Gabriel & Sky Blue. I also worked with him at Gibson-Pfannenschmitt & remembered his measured voice & quick smile that marked every conversation. No matter the situation he seemed basically unflappable. He also came to the Rite-Aid when I worked there & it was always a pleasant hello & most likely a nice smile that was part of every interchange. I will miss all of these thoughts but those memories remain forever & I hope you have many more to help you through this loss. I'm sure he gave you a wealth of good times to help you through these hard days ahead & even though not perfect, he really seemed to make the effort & that's all any of us can do, Patrick Sumner, with my best wishes for you & all of your family.
