“ My entire childhood core memories consist of being in Mamaws home ❤️. Kristina, Shelby, & Autumn became like sisters to me at a young age. It was the first home my sister and I were allowed to stay that night at. My parents worked a lot so mamaw invited us to stay for dinner all the time. Her cooking was the first southern meals I tasted. I drank RC at mamaws for the first time. Kristina and I hung out in the den every day after school and watched The Brady Bunch! Her home was so cozy, I was intrigued by her wall photo collage of all her grandkids. I admired the love she had for her family. I always wished I had a grandma in my life because of her. She wasn't my mamaw but she let us call her that. I was always welcome regardless if any of the girls were home. There were many conversations and laughs had at her table, on her porch, and in her yard. When I seen on mamaw on 4/4/25 at Kristina's wedding she had tears in her eyes and it made me cry, she held my hand and said "you haven't changed one bit ☐, you're still so beautiful and look just like your mom" 😞. I was sad I hadn't seen her sooner! But I am grateful that I got to see her one last time. That day felt nostalgic because I felt like I was with my family. Mamaw was living her best life that day, a beer in 1 hand, and dancing the night away. Mamaw you will be remembered and forever missed. Love you always! -Reyna

“ Mamaw was a beautiful and kind woman who I had the pleasure to know and become a part of the big family she created. I know how missed she will be by all of her family.
