“ Chris, Connie, Timmy and Kenny -
I was heartbroken when I got the news, but the memories came flooding in and brought a smile to my face. From Wednesday mornings at the bowling alley to our Christmas morning gift exchanges, how Nancy was "hurt" when I chose to sit on John's lap in the lawn chair all those many summer nights to one of the last times I saw her, she held my hand and said I was a sweet girl, from the comfort of knowing the door was always open and knocking wasn't necessary to the assurance that somewhere in heaven, someone has brought an extra lawn chair and their circle, while not yet complete, is a little bigger today. She is loved and will be missed. As always, you are in my thoughts and prayers.
