“ I am forever grateful for having "Uncle Norbert" as a part of my life. He will be forever missed but never forgotten. He had a great long life and it is one all should hope to have. As hard as it is for Tom, Bobby, Jim, & Denise rest assured sadness will be replaced with the tears of laughter as he is remembered. He now re-joins his parents, brothers and sisters, Aunt Shirley and his son John. Rest in Peace you lived a life well deserved.

“ I will always be daddy's little girl, my whole life he has been there to fix whatever needed fixing. He did this without being asked to do it. Even after i married he would come down to my house and see what he could get into. I loved sitting on dads lap and watching whatever sport was on with him as a child. As i got older and had my first daughter(jessica) he gave her lots of attention, teaching her fishing, Golf putting in the front yard and so on. He even made her her own golf putter. He was a great step in Father to my daughter til she got a father. For Christmas ever year i got him the Christmas cakes(little debbie) he loved them so much. He loved all sweets and His U of K team. He was always concerned about how everyone was doing. I could sit and tell you all the memories he made with us but that would take this whole site. I will miss our everyday phone calls. If i waited til his game shows came on, he would tell me what was happening on the show. His favorite show was Price is right.
Love you Daddy!

“ I remember as a young child he ate liver pudding(his whole life) its a grey nasty looking tube of insanity. since I was right next to him he asked you want to try it? I looked over at mom and said mom do I have to try that, and she looked me in the eye and said no honey you don't another story was this man was built on eggs and bacon, he ate it 99% of his life each day. one Sunday morning, I gobbled down my breakfast so fast and I said hey i forgot to put salt and pepper on mine, he said come over here and he tilted back my head and sprinkled it in my mouth, and said there you go now your all set after my grandpa died and (he was a convert to Catholicism), I asked him about god and what was the big deal he actually spent a few hours telling me about the trinity. I doubt he shared that with anyone else in life but me. he was known to have a beef with Fr. Stucker from St. clement that he never got over ( a few other people in my life told me about this guy and how he had made a few never return to the church) some of the best said no man on earth will divide me from the lord.

Dad I will never forget you and I hope I can be a papaw as long as you and get thei love you got from the grand kids. you were there
