“ Grandma I'll never forget how when my parents kicked me out. I was living in my car, you brought me in your home and gave me a place to stay and fed me. You, my uncles, and my aunts helped in many different ways to help me get my life on track. Then, again when I came home from the Marines. Hurt from my accident, you gave me a home and helped me get things aligned so I could survive on my own. You always saw the best in me no matter what. Also, your the only person I've ever seen drink beer with a straw. You're the strongest person I've ever known and I love you very much.
