“ I am a friend of the Hamilton family and we were very close. We grew up in the same community and attended Mt. Pleasant Cumberland Presbyterian Church together. We do offer condolences to all the Webb family.

“ Norma & I were neighbors when we were young children. We attended a one room school at Big Reedy until we began attending Sunfish High School in 7th grade. We continued attending Sunfish until we graduated in the spring of 1952. I remember Norma was a basketball cheer leader during her junior & senior years. I talked with Norma a few weeks before her passing. Her son in Alaska called me the next day after her passing. We remembered our friendship all those many years. My prayers are with the son & all his family in Alaska & all of Norma's other family members.

“ I'm thankful for Norma and Lane Webb and for her prayers. She still prayed for Greenwood Church. She was a woman of strong faith and gave courage and hope to many. Norma led many people to the Lord.
She was a help to me and I pray that God blesses her family.
