

Norman "Stormin' Norman" W. Callahan

April 14, 1944 - April 15, 2026

Norman "Stormin' Norman" W. Callahan, 81, passed away Wednesday, April 15, 2026.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Clifford Callahan and Adelaide Nagele; brothers, "Sonny Boy", Charles, and Pete Callahan; and sister, Patricia "Magda" Callahan-Stovall.

He is survived by his sons, Kyle Callahan and Beau Brown Callahan; his life partner of 50 years and the "love of my life", Janice Legge; good friend, Mark Wilson; nephews, Scott Callahan (Melody), Michael Callahan, Brian Callahan, Paul Callahan and Johnny Stovall; and niece, Vickie Callahan.

Norman played football for St. Columba and Flaget High School and also played softball for the Portland AC and was inducted into the Softball Hall of Fame. He worked many years for the Gahm family at Kitchen Kompact and dedicated 37 years of his life to Valhalla Golf Club, where he was the locker room manager and ambassador of goodwill for 37 years.

His visitation will be from 2-6 p.m. Tuesday, April 21, 2026, at Owen Funeral Home-Jeffersontown, 9318 Taylorsville Rd. with a short memorial service to follow.

The family wishes to thank Valhalla Golf Club and Mark Wilson for their love and care for Norman over the years.
