“ My families thoughts and prayers go out to you and your children in this time of sorrow. I will always remember Brad for being a great guy that I had many things in common with (Military, soccer, etc...). I always looked forward to playing soccer with him each week and spending time together when we were younger. He will be greatly missed.

“ We would like to send you our deepest sympathy for your loss of your loved one. You and your family are and will remain in our prayers. Our daughter (Triniti) is Eris' classmate and she wanted to tell her that she misses her and hopes to see her soon. May God bless and keep you at this very difficult time.
