“ I will never to PRP Ice Cream and not think of you, nor wil I ever see your smiling face in line at Butler Traditional High School asking for a cheese pizza. When I learned that you had gone to be with God and Jesus, I was shocked and very sad. I still look for you in line and realize that you are not coming that way again.I know I will miss Tina and you having a conversation about how you are doing. You are in a better place and I will see you again soon. Olivia, you left a place in our hearts that only your memories can fill. Rest in Jesus' arms and when I get to Heaven I will look for you so we can sit and talk for eternity. We will give each a gentle high five. Until then you are forever in our hearts.

“ I am so, utterly great broken and can not even imagine, in my wildest and worst dreams, maybe better referred to as a nightmare, though, no doubt..what you and the rest of your family is going through in experiencing this tragic and untimely passing of the sweet, beautiful Olivia. She was a terrific joy to be around and amazingly pure of heart. I loved to sit with her and listen to her talk, she was just a wonderful of a listener as she was a story teller and was so passionate about so many things. She was a body to this world and now she can be cherished just as much, maybe even more, by the angels she flew back home with...

*My most sincere condolences for your loss.
If only words were more of antidotal than anecdotal at a time like this when you must be experiencing so much pain...*

*All of my love to your family,
Skylar Leanne Fullen*
