“ Dear Lula and family,
We were so sorry to read of your husband's/father's death. May God bless you with His love this year as you deal with your sorrow. Chris and I have often thought of you Lula, hoping you were doing well. We first met you when you were selling flowers from your beautiful garden. You were so kind to my twin sister (who shortly after visiting your garden died of cancer) and the iris we bought from you brought her so much joy. We wish you all of God's blessings.
