“ From us being young kids & our mom's being close sisters we grew up being around one another and playing together. The Halloween parties out in the garage that Uncle Richard had it set up to look just like it was its own bar & the place that we always wanted to hang out in. Uncle Richard playing the guitar and singing to Aunt Shirley. The pictures I have of us dressed up in our Halloween costumes. I especially remember when it came to barbie dolls and all the clothes & doll furniture and consuming most the hallway & into the 2 bedrooms with the making of each of our barbie dolls houses. Lol what fun we would all have for hours & hours. Spending the night with you all & Uncle Richard fixing us all a big wonderful breakfast (my 1st time having scrambled eggs with cheese in it) loved it! Wow. The simple things in life that we all enjoyed. You left this earth way too soon. You were loved by so many & will be so very missed. Thank you for the cheering me up & the distraction you brought to me when you came to my side while the scared young kid me was in the hospital and sick & you joked & clowned around & help to rescue me from the fear! Spread your wings ☐ far as you earned that as the angel that you were. My love being sent with you and to your kids.

Bev,
Thank you so much for your touching remembrance of Pam and your bond of friendship and love through times both joyful and trying. She was indeed a ray of sunshine to those in need, be they family, friends, or even strangers, and everyone who got to know her was better for having done so.
