“ You were truly one of the most beautiful and gracious people I ever knew, both on the inside and outside. I will forever remember and cherish the special times we shared, as well as the profound conversations. You were a light and blessing to all of us who were fortunate enough to call you friend. I look forward to seeing you when I get there. With much love, Glenna.

“ She joined us in church almost every time we came. She will so be missed. When I visited, she always had a story to share. Blessed for the time I got to know her. She so often told me she was visiting her parents - thankful for their heavenly reunion. I knew her best through my teenage daughter- she always had the best stories about Pam. Hugs and prayers for the family.

“ *Pam was extraordinary in almost every way. She was beautiful, talented and had a style all her own.
Pam and I have known one another since early childhood growing up in Decatur Illinois.
Pam loved being a mother and upon her moving to Louisville we got to share many happy moments raising our children.
Pam was elegant and possessed a certain grace that was evident to all.
She was a wonderful hairstylist, seamstress, home maker and put her unique and artistic mark on all she accomplished. Pam loved the Lord and His word.
I know she is now at peace in Heaven reunited with her son Joel.
Praise be!
Sending deepest sympathy and love to her family.
