“ I worked with Pam for many years at Liberty Mutual Insurance. My memories of Pam is her great love of her boys, husband and grandchildren. Her face would lighten up as she proudly talked about her family. At her career , with Liberty, she was devoted to her customers and provided only excellence in taking care of their needs. Her clients “loved” her! She always had something ready for the children that she meet on the way. My favorite memory was when she picked me up for work during a terrible snow storm. She cared about others and my phone would ring early in the morning with a “want me to pick you up”? I never asked, she just knew how scared I was in the snow and ice. This one time, she was driving, my eyes closed, I looked up and said, “ I don’t see the road!”. She replied, “I am not sure I am on the road”. We laughed all the way to work. Pam cared so much about others. She made an impact on me and she will always be in my memories.

“ Pam would babysit my siblings and I. So hard to believe. Long time neighbors and friends growing up. I remember watching her come home from high school walking down the hill to home in her western high school cheerleading outfit. She will be missed by many. She is in her City of Gold where the sun never sets and the righteous forever will shine like the stars! I praise the Lord she did not have to suffer!
