

Pamela Ann Spellman

June 18, 1948 - May 5, 2021

Pamela Ann Spellman (Pam) died wednesday May 5th at her home after a long battle with cancer. Pam, a Louisville native, was born on a small farm in Fern Creek, Ky. Pam graduated from Dupont Manual High School, then continued her education at The University of Louisville. Pamela was a very talented and beautiful woman. She had an incredible sense of humor and was the life of any party. Her smile could light up a room. Early in her career, Pam worked for WHAS, and instructed dance at both Arthur Murray and Fred Astaire Dance studios. In later years, Pam managed a health clinic and went on to volunteer. Pam was very generous with her heart and time and was an avid volunteer at Walnut Street Baptist church.

Pam was preceded in death by her parents Vernon and Dorothy Spellman, and her three brothers Micheal, Anthony and Joseph Spellman. She is survived by her sister-in-laws (and lifetime friends) Patricia Spellman Browne and Bonnie Beauchamp, her nieces Deborah Breland and Michelle Spellman, her cousins Harbhajan Kaur Khalsa and Valarie Schook, as well as many second cousins, extended family, church family and closest friend Lida. Per Pam's request no funeral service will be held and her ashes will be spread near her mother and grandparents. In lieu of flowers please make a donation to The American Cancer Society.
