“ I just heard of Pansy's passing. We had known each other for many years and she was a lovely lady! I so enjoyed the times that she and Jim would come and eat at our restaurant. It always gave us a chance to catch up!! God Bless you Pansy, until we meet again.....

“ We had an angel here on earth, now God has his angel with him in heaven. Pansy was a true Southern Belle with her beauty and charm. She was more than a good neighbor to me, she was part of my family. We loved her dearly. She watched my son, Alan, grow up and loved him like one of her own. We will trully miss you Pansy. You're with God now and at peace. You get to be with Jim again. I know how you missed him so much. You will live in our hearts forever. We Love You Pansy.

“ We love you Pansy! We will see you in heaven! We will always remember your spirit, your love and your compassion to all. I will always remember the good times we had and the fun dinner's with Jim when we visited. Our Love to one of the only women who could pull off camo and pearls! For it was once said, "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, but love leaves a memory no one can steal. "
