“ *My Dear Friend "Kelly",
I cannot believe I am writing this today. After all these years, my heart is heavy. You and the other kids from L.G.H. were my first encounter with the world, after high school. You are still a dear friend and I thank you, from the bottom of my heart.*

We get busy and our lives sometimes drift apart, only to come crashing back together again without even a second to say good-by. I refuse to say good-by now, but I will say, "later".

*Thank you my dear friend,
Russell Cole*

“ I know you as my friend Kelly. You saved me from what could have been 2 full years of confinement in the YWCA if my Mom had her way. But, you came along and we became best friends.. I spent many nights with you at your parents house. I had great fried chicken there too!! We had some super fun times during those 2 years. I thank you Kelly for so many fun times together. I know life takes us on different paths and we drift apart. But you Kelly were always my dear friend. Thank you. I wish you peace my friend. We will think of you often and that will bring us a smile. Bell

“ I met Pat in high school. Whenever we were together we always got in trouble for talking and laughing. I recall when we both got a D in conduct. Daddy about blew a gasket but I explained that it was clearly the teacher's fault for seating us together. He knew I was right so he just threw up his hands and walked away. Pat and I shared soo many memories together. We were young wives and mothers together. She was my loyal friend and I loved her dearly. Heaven is sweeter since she entered it's portals. A piece of my heart left this world yesterday. Until we meet again my darling friend.

“ My dear Pat, Over 33 years we worked hand in hand to the service of our patients. You were always there, never left until the last patient was seen, loyal, compassionate, kind, gentle and trustworthy. I have missed your devotion and dedication and your incomparable work ethic and now I, like so many others, will miss you even more. All my love, Dr. Loeb
