“ Sending our deepest sympathy to Brook, Steve and Matt in the passing of your mother.
Pat was such a sweet, friendly and giving person. Her smile could light up a room.
We enjoyed many conversations and reminiscing together. We have been neighbors for many, many years, to the point we considered Pat, Herb, Brook, Steve and Matt as family. We could not have asked for nicer neighbors.
Pat loved to bake and many times she would bring either cookies, cake or cornbread she had just taken out of the oven over to us to enjoy. She didn't eat much of anything herself, but enjoyed baking and giving to others.
Pat will truly be missed. May she rest in peace in the arms of Jesus Christ. Shirley & Don Hazelwood
