“ So many good memories of Pat and Roy, as well as Dot and Garland and the entire Self Family.

My husband Jim Chowning worked/retired from at American Standard with Roy and we stayed in touch for many years.

Pat was always so thoughtful to invite me to visit in her home when Dottie and her family came back to Louisville for a visit.

Love and Prayers to Karen and her Family, and the Self Family as well.

“ Pat was always a lovely lady with a quick laugh and love of life

She was a poker player bar none and if the cards weren't going her way always had a "fresh deck" to change her luck. She always knew a new game to try.

She was an active member of the Autumn Trace Community and very active in all endeavors.

I will miss her and am thankful for knowing her.
