“ This is a belated post for my friend Pat. We worked together at Porter Paint Company and became work buddies and then friends outside of work. She was so smart. I really admired her and respected her work ethic and quiet strength. I really enjoyed meeting her family a few times when I visited their home and swam in their backyard pool.

She was a bridesmaid in my wedding. She looked absolutely beautiful. I am so shocked to learn of her passing. I moved to the west coast and lost touch with her over time. May your beautiful soul rest in peace my friend.
