“ Pat is one of the fondest people that I know. He is my husband's cousin (Todd's). We are based in LA so whenever we visit KY, I always look forward to visiting him and our chats. He possesses this great energy that makes anyone feel happy and light. I will surely miss his random comments whenever I post pictures of our son on Instagram. He loves making fun of me and I do the same by calling him, “grandpa” even though he's my cousin-in-law. I will miss his warm hugs and infectious laughs. Pat, wherever you are right now, please know that we love you dearly. See you later!

“ Memories: Carol, Donna and Pat coming to the hospital after I had cancer surgery. Pat coming to dinner and listening to my husband Jim tell stories and Italian jokes. Pat calling after Jim passed away and keeping me on the phone for almost 2 hours talking about anything and everything making sure I was ok. We butted heads at work but was always over it quickly. What an incredible man. Loved his laugh. He will be missed by so many but will always be alive in our hearts. Rip my friend

“ I received sad news yesterday that an old friend passed away. Anyone who knows me knows that once I call you “friend” we are friends forever. My fondest memory of Pat was him playing Santa Clause to my 2 oldest grandchildren by calling them every year for Christmas. While the grandchildren outgrew the call from Santa, I haven't forgotten the joy that call brought to them. I will always remember his infectious laugh and how cool it was to work for him while I was at AT&T. 😭

“ Donna, my most treasured memory of Pat was how much he cared for people and his priceless ability to make me laugh even in stressful situations. If you were Pat's friend, he was there for you. He would drive many miles to visit a friend in the hospital, comfort a friend who lost a loved one, or share a meal with a group of co-workers/friends he had not seen in a while. I feel so blessed to have worked with Pat for a number of years and even more blessed to call him my friend. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Donna, the entire family, and all who loved him. May God give you comfort today and in the days ahead. Precious memories of Pat will remain in all of our hearts. God bless you !!

“ There are so many memories but always the best ones are when Pat would make us all laugh out loud. The many skits he and Larry delivered, the costumes and always caring about the people he worked with will always be remembered. My husband called Pat and Larry “my pups” and it was true you never knew what they would do next, but you always knew they were going to do something! Love and kind thoughts to his family and friends he truly loved. Sharon NeSmith
