“ I remember when he lived off Factory Lane in the big white farm house. We would play on the farm as kids and he was always willing to put me on the back of his big red horse and walk us around in the field. It was one of the greatest joys I remember with him as a child. ❤️

“ My dad was a wonderful man he loved to help anyone who needed the help and wouldn't ask for anything in return! One of my favorite memories was when we fishing I caught something but couldn't reel it in, dad reeled it in for me and my fish was being eaten by a snapping turtle! That was one of the best days of my life
