“ I still remember years ago when he came to a store I was working at as one of our new managers. He was like a breath of fresh air. He was easygoing and had a great sense of humor. Later after I transferred to another store, my teenage son worked with him. One day Paul calls me at work and tells me “I may be single and have no kids but I know when I see someone burning up with a fever! I have tried to send your son home but he keeps saying he is fine! Would you please talk to him and tell him to go home and take something for his fever!” That was Paul! A little sarcastic at times, with a great sense of humor, tough when it was needed but a caring man too! The world will be a little less enjoyable with out Paul! Gone to soon but won't be forgotten!❤️

“ Paul and I were Managers at Integrity Staffing. He was one of the kindest and most genuine people that I have known. His sense of humor was incredible! I will miss his friendship. The love he had for his Wife and family was beautiful. My prayers to all of you.
