“ Oh man. where can you start when it comes to Mr king. He was by far my favorite neighborhood dad. No matter how bad we misbehaved he always had a way to turn it around with a kind heart. When we grew up and became young men he loved that some of us would enjoy golf and we played many rounds he will be missed but not forgotten. Love thoughts and prayers to the king family. Love you guys your friend Eddie WARREN

“ Bob and I spent our Sunday mornings at St. Peter the Apostle Church with Paul King. We celebrated mass with Paul at 8 am. He always had a beautiful smile and a “peace” handshake for us. After mass he listened to Bob’s weekly stories and shared his family travel stories with us. What a great family man he was. We will miss him. Love and prayers for the family.
