“ I remember a time when my mom Sylvia, Pualines sister had a nervous break down and my aunt Pauline wanted to take me in and raise me as her own. I remember a visit to California from her hearing this as a child. Oh how I love you so and will miss you always. Until we meet again. Sing with the angels and save us seats when its our turn to be called home. I love you for all the ways you were kind and loved me bo matter where I was in life.
