“ My family and I pray for all the soliders and their families every night. We truly appreciate that you served your country. I am deeply sorry that not only you, but also your family had to pay the ultimate sacrifice. I hope your family and friends are able to hold on and treasure the memories that you all made together and that your beautiful daughter grows up and can know a part of you from those cherished memories. I will keep your family in my thoughts and prayers. With deepest sympathy, Mandy Fessel
