“ Dear Jimmy: I just saw Rachael's obituary in the paper this morning. I'm sorry I can't be there as we are not in town. I do however, want to send my deepest sympathy to you and your family. I still remember how much your presence at dad's funeral meant to me and mom. I still regard you as the best friend I ever had and often think of all the fun we had as kids "ball-hawking" at Shawnee golf course. My heart goes out to you in your time of pain. Love, Billy
