“ Thanks to the Kirby W. Holladay, Jr. family, we were made aware of the sad news of Ralph's departure from physical life to eternal life. Please accept our sympathy and best wishes for your loss of the presence of a great man. we were neighbors and friends of the Holladays in Shepherdsville, and had the good fortune of meeting and knowing Ralph for a number of years. Without expanding on Ralph's earthly merits, it is clear to us that his continued life after death will continue to lead his family and great friend Mark Lucas to help the rest of us to honor his commitment to his friends. God bless us all.

“ *Sister Carolyn and family,
I am so sorry to learn of Brother Ralph's passing. He was a gentle man with a wonderful smile. He trusted and walked with the Lord and finished his race with a courageous and gracious spirit. I will miss him. My prayers are with each of you.*
