“ I only knew Ray from bingo but i never met a more sweet man in all my life. I would talk to him everytime i seen him an he would tell me all about his music an sing an tell me when he was in a band. I used to tell him Ray i know when your near cuz i can smell your tabacco. I knew that same smell cuz my daddy sm9ked the same flavor. Ray would just smile at me an start singing. God bless his sole an his family in this time an our prayers are here for yall an Rays bingo family.

“ Always thought of my Uncle Ray as someone who was very friendly, sociable, but also solitary at times, reserved, introspective and a thinker meaning he desired sending time alone occasionally especially in nature. Use to Jog Iroquois park for a continuous four years and seen Ray more than a dozen times in the woods hunting for golf balls, would sense he had a need to spend time by himself in some form of nature, for reflecting and thinking time if you will. You will be missed Ray, but know now your on the other side with all your brothers, sisters, mother, father, family and friends, in an environment full of love and caring. See you soon Uncle Ray.
