“ We want to say how very sorry we were to hear about the loss of Ray. He was a very special person not only to Spencer but also to Ivan and myself. I still thought of Ray my son in law and always will. I wish he and Spencer could have had more time together for many more years to come, but I'm glad for the time that they had together as dad and son. I know Spence was always so excited for Saturday to come just because he knew his dad would be picking him up so he could spend the day and night with him as father and son. I know that time will be forever missed by him. We love you Ray, you will be forever missed and may you be held in His arms forever.
