“ Amanda and family, we are so very sorry for your loss. We didn't know your dad but he sure raised a special daughter who in turn is raising 5 beautiful children. Cherish the memories and your dad will always be with you. Love you.

“ It is always hard for me at a time like this to come up with words of encouragement for the family in a time of sorrow. I just came back from giving a card to the florist for the flowers. My mind drew a blank. Not because I didn't have anything to say but because I had too much to say. To be blessed with such an amazing man for an Uncle is one of the things that I am thankful for. To have known him and have many memories to cherish I am grateful to keep.

I know Uncle Ray was there for all the family, and our family have always been close. I know this is truly heartbreaking for Aunt Ann, Robin, Debbie, and Amanda. We have been through the same. But this is a part of life, a part of God's will, and as hard as it is a time to be grateful that Uncle Ray will be in heaven with those that have gone before him.

Uncle Ray you are now free from sickness, from pain, from sorrow, and now you will feel grace and love for eternity.

To Aunt Ann, Robin, Debbie, Amanda, and the rest of your families I pray the Lord to give you strength to get through the hard times.

*Love,
Stacey*

“ Ray, you were the truest measure of a man i've ever met. You always put your family first, you showed me that a man can do or create just about anything he sets his mind to with a little hard work and perserverence. You were tough as nails to your last day. You did so much for Amanda and I, and i'm ashamed I wasn't always there to return the favor. I pray that you'll forgive me. I'll miss your stories about Ft Chaffee and the 3rd I.D., and I'll miss talking to you about Hank's deer hunts and about work in the trades.

I know you're with your son now at the right hand of Jesus Christ and I know you'll always be there watching over us.

Rest in peace Ray. We'll love and cherish your memory till we meet again.
