“ So sorry to hear about your dad. Terry and I loved him so. Ray used to come every morning and have coffee with us at Zacks. We would laugh and talk about things but mainly his children and Mary. He was a sweet man and cared about his family. He was always bringing pictures of all of you and telling us stories but mostly he talked about his Mary. I know they are together and happy once again because she was his life. Sending prayers to your family at this hard time. Always Alice and Terry Ward.
