

Rebecca "Becka" Lynn Clayton

March 8, 1952 - March 30, 2019

Rebecca "Becka" Lynn Clayton, 67, entered into the joy of her salvation on Saturday, March 30, 2019, at 11:51 am, with her loving husband James by her side.

Becka is preceded in death by her older sister Melissa "Missy", surrogate mother and mentor, and her parents Emma, and Thomas.

Becka and James were married for 38 years. She is survived by daughter Nicole Annette Kosoris [Brian] of Marietta GA; sister Cynthia Eckard [John] and their children, Thomas and Melissa of Murrysville, PA.

Becka was born March 8, 1952, to Thomas and Emma Walters, at the Citizens General Hospital in New Kensington, PA. She graduated with honors from Valley High School in New Kensington, PA, and began her college at Penn State with several Honors Scholarships; she completed her BS degree in 1976 at Indiana State University, Pennsylvania, in Social Science Education, Sociology Concentration with a minor in Educational Psychology and Testing.

Becka passionately shared the gospel and used every opportunity to share her love of her savior Jesus Christ. She tirelessly supported her husband and they together raised their daughter while he finished his undergraduate work. A dedicated and creative math teacher and Sunday school teacher, Becka influenced many young lives. She loved mathematics and was exceedingly proficient at turning failing students into successful students who developed their own love of mathematics, the Savior, and Becka.
