“ My Sister always looked after me when we were young, as I got older she taught me how to take up for myself. I loved her so much as she was the oldest child of the Family. We all looked up to her, she taught me many thing. She was a strong believer in Christ Jesus . I feel good to know she is with him now.

Love you Becky, you Brother, Raymond Nix !!

“ My sympathies to Becky's family. My mother, Irene Poynter, attended Ralph Ave and Becky greeted her every Sunday morning with a big smile and a hug which Mom appreciated so much. Feel sure Mom welcomed Becky into Heaven with a smile and hug, too.

“ Neighbors with Becky and her family in the 1950s. Many fond memories of evenings on the front porches. Becky taught me to crochet in my early teens and I think of her every time I start a new crochet project. She was quite the perfectionist.

“ I called Becky every Sunday at 4 P.M. and we made arrangements for our book swap. I'll never forget all the times we worked together on the dinners at Ralph Ave. She will be greatly missed by all those who loved her. God bless and comfort her sons and their families.
