“ My prayers and thoughts are with the family. So enjoyed the get together he set up with his Ohlmann family and my brother and I.

Martha Ohlman Hattabaugh - November 27, 2020 at 10:41 AM

Martha, thank you so much for your kind thoughts. I remember how excited dad was to meet you and the others. He gave me the research that was part of your get together. Again, thank you for remembering him. Theresa O. Ballard ❤️

“ Loved that sweet gentle man and his wife. I will be unable to attend because I just had left knee surgery. Every time I would see him we talked gardening. He will be missed. But I know he is watching over us.

Thank you Uncle Jim. I don't remember seeing this picture. It looks just like him—creative and fun. He loved all of his brothers and sisters very much. Much love to all, Theresa

Uncle Jim, I thought dad said this was from a vacation trip the family went on. I believe we saw it on the Ohlmann website that Renee set up. Love the image!
