“ Remembering Rick!

Rick became my brother in law in 1979, I remember Rick as a quiet man who seemed to prefer remaining in the background, not drawn to crowded places and parties unless it was centered around a family function. throughout all the years his brother Kent played music, I think Rick came out to see him play maybe 5 times at the most, and even though I know he was very proud of his little brother and enjoyed the great music, I could always tell Rick was uncomfortable with the surroundings.

I remember Rick being the most happiest when he was doing what he loved to do, "fixing things" being under the hood of his car, repairing the lawn mower, fixing the fence etc.

I remember Rick being a strong but gentle man, a man of few words!

Rest In Peace, Rick!

Love, Tammy
