

Robert "Bob" Allen Gasser

June 14, 2015

Gasser, Robert "Bob" Allen, 61, of Louisville, went home to his Heavenly Father Sunday, June 14, 2015. He was surrounded by his loving wife and two children when he was called home. He was a diehard U of K fan, loved fishing with his son. He and his daughter had a relationship that only a father and daughter could understand. He was her rock, most of all he loved relaxing on his front porch with his best friend, his wife. Bob had retired from MSD after 25 years of service and currently worked for Graf's Liquor Store. Bob was preceded in death by his parents, Robert L. and Georgia Gasser. Left to cherish his memory are his wife of 40 years, Debby (Nanna) Gasser; daughter, Jenny Gasser (Derek Braden); son, Scott Gasser (Megan Dodson); and his grandson, Cooper Lee who was the light of his life; sister, Linda Elzy; brother, Allen Gasser. Funeral services will be held 12:00 noon Thursday at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Highway with burial in Bethany Cemetery. Visitation will be 12:00 – 8:00 PM Wednesday.

“ I wish I had the words to make your pain go away but only time will ease the pain. Debi Ginny and Scott May God be at your sides to help you through this difficult time. I will be keeping all of you in my prayers. Bob has now become a member of the "Big Blue Nation" in Heaven. What an honor.
May he rest in peace.

“ I'm wondering what to say to make it better, and all I can think about is all the summers you guys came down and all the fun we had at the pool and the fighting over the corners of the bread pudding Georgia always made. I have nothing but happy thoughts about Bob and Debby. We will miss him terribly. Sending love and prayers for you and the kids
