“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Bob.
I am the granddaughter of Daniel Edwin Lyon aka Uncle Pete in Kentucky.
A few years back I was lucky to have met Bob and Glenna also Paul and Anne Stogner while in Kentucky doing Lyon family genealogy research.
What wonderful people!!!
Bob was a delightful person and I enjoyed the evening that I spent with the 4 of them.
Glenna and family, my thoughts are with eachand everyone of you.

“ Glenna, I'm sure you don't remember me but my parents and I (Bill, Frances & Luanne Wright) lived in the upstairs of your mother's home. This was in 1950-51. You and Bob lived there and had two babies. I read Bob's obit in the paper and just wanted you to know how sorry I was. I really intended to come to the funeral home to see you but couldn't make it today. Just wanted you to know that after 60 years, I was thinking of you. Luanne Wright Riddle

“ My sentiments echo my sister's above. In the 1960s when we lived off West Pages Lane and you lived on Morning Glory there was virtually no separation between our families.

One lasting memory of Bobby will be a weekend camping trip we did jointly in Bernheim Forest about 50 years ago. It rained incessantly and the campground was a mud pit. Bobby got his red Pontiac station wagon stuck between two trees. He never lost his cool, even when the car overheated. Actually, he laughed during the entire episode.

That infectious laugh was his trademark and a clear sign that you were about to lose the Scrabble game. Never met a man with so much energy and enthusiasm for life.

My thoughts are with second mom Glenna, kids, and grandkids.

“ To George and Family, I am very sorry for your loss. Your Father was a good man. He was like my dad an honorable man. The last time I saw him was at my dads funeral. Which meant alot. I am sorry I can't be there to show my respects. My heart goes out to your family for your loss. Mark H Moss

“ To Glenna and my "cousins",
What wonderful memories I have of Bobby. Even with a big family of his own, he always showed an interest in the Olson kids and made us feel special. His energy, diversity of interests and knowledge, and intellect were amazing. And how he loved each one of you. I am so sad Bobby is gone but am happy for the father and husband you had.

With sympathy and love,
Julie
