

Robert "Bob" Davison

May 9, 1936 - April 8, 2024

Robert "Bob" Davison, 87, was called home Monday, April 8, 2024, in Louisville. Bob was born to the late Ollie (White), and Kenneth Davison May 9, 1936, in Yeaman, KY. He was the devoted husband of Catherine for 60 years who preceded him in death in 2017. He never stopped missing her. He was also preceded by his brother Sam and his sister Nell.

Left to cherish his memory is his son, Jeff Davison (Miranda); daughter, Robin Davison; sisters, Virgie Owen (Charles), Karen Compton, and Pam Brown.

Bob was a U.S. Army veteran and long-time employee of Gulf Oil/BP but his favorite job by far was being granddaddy to the lights of his life, his granddaughters, Caitlynn and Mallory Davison. He was a devout Christian, a "sneakin deacon" and a long-time member of Rockford Lane Baptist Church. His funeral service will be at 11:00 a.m. (EST) Saturday, April 13, 2024, at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Highway, Louisville.

Visitation will be from 2:00 – 7:30 p.m. Friday at Owen Funeral Home.

Burial will be at 1:00 p.m. (CT) Saturday at Yeaman Cemetery, Grayson Co.

“ I remember the first time I attended Rockford lane Baptist church with my wife and Bob and Cathy were the first people that greeted us when we walked in. That still sticks out in my mind like it was yesterday. Him and another deacon were at the hospital when my wife had open heart surgery and then both were with me when I had gall bladder surgery and I wasn't a member at that time. I absolutely loved Catherine and Bob. Some of the nicest people you would want to meet. Prayers for the family at this time.

“ Robin, so sorry. Bob was a good guy. My father passed a year ago and something reminds of him everyday. Hang on to the good memories you have of your dad and you will be OK.

Deepest Sympathy,
Drew

Bob was a great neighbor of ours. He liked to laugh and talk about the old days . I never heard him say a cross word about anyone. He loved our neighborhood and all the people in it. He will be missed by anyone who knew him . Joe and Annette Pierce
