“ I was in shock when I heard of his passing. Fred was definitely a perfectionist in his line of work. He was the guy I'd go to for updating my house.
To his family, sorry for your loss. He will be greatly missed by many!
Rest in peace, Fred!!

I have a kinda funny but crazy memory of Fred.He was at the bowling alley one night and came out the door,fell down the steps but never spilled one drop of his beer.I was worried he was hurt but he got up,laughed and said but I didn't spill one drop.I asked if he was ok and he said he was fine but a few days later I saw him and he said he broke some ribs and was bruised.

“ My Brother I Miss you soo much. We had So many Awesome times that it would take days to write about them all. I worked for you and you worked for me you were a perfectionist and meticulous about anything you did! you taught me a lot in life and we were always there for each other I'm still in shock and numb that your gone and in heaven now. I look over at your house and I feel empty, however I know I will see you again in heaven one day. I Love you Bro watch over us all and I'll see you in the other side.

Fred Old Buddy...I can't believe you've moved on so soon. You were a really great guy Fred! You are missed by alot of people especially Jon and Jen. You were a GREAT DAD!!! I saw it first hand. To Fred's family, I am so sorry for your loss. To Jon and Jen, I feel your pain...I love you two so much and I'm sorry you have to suffer this loss. 💕 To Tami, I imagine it's not easy losing the father of your children and a friend at the same time. To Michelle, you've been a long time girlfriend and friend of Fred's for years...I'm sorry for your loss as well. I pray for you all to find some kind of peace. 🌹
My Deepest Sympathy,
Karen Lewis
