“ Bob and I spent many a night drinking when we were on the Hammond. He would write “Bar Room Poetry” on the napkins. I remember we would sometimes borrow James Pattons car. That was until I got my 62 Chevy pickup. Soon after he bought his 70 cougar.
I cannot express my heartache for his family. This world is a more beautiful place because of him. He was one of the best men I’ve ever known.

“ I loved listening to Bob talk. His voice was so easy on the ears (for the most part). He cherished his wife and his kids. Always talked of how he loved them. He told me once how he was the luckiest man to have such a family.
He was so proud of his time in the Navy and often told stories of those days over and over. He loved to cook especial if it involved cooking on that huge grill LOL....I remember him grilling and he wasn't quite sure of what temperature to use. He looked at me and said well it's either going to be very done soon or it's going to take longer than we thought
. One thing I guess I'll never understand is how a person didn't like anything tomato....LOL
Well Bob you will be missed big time but, I know your having a blast in Heaven and telling those stories to anyone who will listen. I can only imagine what that day looked like when you seen Jesus. One day we will meet again and yes you can tell me all those stories again.
